Who we share your information with

We share your personal data with third parties, including other Government bodies.

This includes the Department of Education and Skills, NCSE, TUSLA, An Garda Síochána, HSE, the Department of Social Protection, the Revenue Commissioners etc.

The level of sharing and the nature of what is shared depend on various factors. The Government bodies to which we transfer your personal data will use your personal data for their own purposes (including: to verify other information they already hold about you, etc.) and they may aggregate it with other information they already hold about you and your family. We also share your personal data with other third parties including our insurance company and other service providers (IT providers, security providers, legal advisors, fundraising consultants etc.), We are legally required to provide certain records relating to the progress of a pupil (under 18 years) in his/her education to the pupil's parents/guardians, including results of assessments.

For further information on who we share your data with, when and in what circumstances, and why, please see our Data Protection Policy available at www.suttonparkschool.com.

We do not transfer your personal data to a third country or international organisation.

We do not engage in automated decision making/profiling.

How long we hold your child's data

Some personal data is only kept for a short period e.g. data no longer needed will be safely destroyed at the end of an academic year.

Some data we retain for a longer period e.g. enrolment forms are retained in the school until your child reaches 25 years of age.

Some data is never destroyed e.g. Roll Books and School Registers.

For further information on the retention periods, please go to our Data Protection Policy available at www.suttonparkschool.com.

You have the following statutory rights that can be exercised at any time

- Right to complain to supervisory authority
- Right of access
- Right to rectification
- Right to be forgotten
- Right to restrict processing
- Right to data portability
- Right to object and automated decision making/profiling
